“ Hi Mother, it's been 4years since you passed away however I know you are still watching over us. You taught us so much, I will never forget your teachings. Yes we miss you more than I'd ever imagined.. you said we would. Thank you for raising us to always do the right thing. Thank you for your strength and wisdom. Mother I think of you daily and look for signs that you haven't forgotten me. As I mature I appreciate and admire your hard work and determination. Yes, you were hard however I've become a better person because of you. I love you mother and hope and pray this message reaches you. God Bless You! Yes, GOD is keeping me.

Hi mother! It's been 5 years. We miss you more every day. I feel your presence often. We cherish the many memories that we have of you. You taught us many things but most of all you taught us to pray. Mother I'm still praying. More lately than ever. Love you ❤️

“ To the Wallace Family and Friends; I know how difficult this time must be for you. May the light from God's word the bible be a guide and comfort through the darkness of your loss. John 5:28,29 gives hope of a future resurrection and Rev 21:3,4 of a day when there will be no more death, mourning or pain.. Jesus at John 11:11 said to his disciples.. "Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep." We can have faith in these promises..because Jehovah (Psalm 83:18)who promised these things...cannot lie..Hebrews 6:18. Please know that Jessie Mae is sleeping as was Lazarus and not suffering (Ecclesiastes 9:5) My prayers are with you as God strengthens you in the days ahead.

“ Although I am unable to be there to hold your hands through this difficult time, know that my heart shares your sorrow. Gone but not forgotten is a smile that could light any room, and a voice that could warm any heart with a song. Find strength in knowing as Jessie Mae traveled to her heavenly home, her Aunt Daisy Mae was there awaiting her arrival with love.

Sending you Prayers, Hugs, and Love,
