“ I worked with Investigator Jimmie Brown for a number of years in the then Special Investigations Section. He was serious about what we did because he knew that our lives depended on our response to situations at any time. His laugh was infectious. Jimmie loved his family. He was a partner that I could depend on to make sure we both went home at the end of the day. We not only shared our police experience, we also shared birthdays. Rest in Heaven my brother.

My prayers and thoughts are with the Brown family as they go through this time of loss. He will be missed by many.
