“ Dear Dad,

I miss you so much already. It feels strange to write to you knowing you are no longer here on earth with me, but I believe you can hear me in heaven. I just want you to know how much I love you and how grateful I am for every moment we shared.

You taught me so many lessons, not just with your words but with the way you lived your life ,your strength, your love, your sense of humor, and the way you cared for our family. Those lessons are with me every single day, and I promise to carry them forward.

Even though my heart feels heavy, I find comfort in imagining you at peace, surrounded by love ones. I know you will always be watching over me, guiding me, and sending me little signs when I need them most.

I wish I could have one more conversation with you, one more hug, one more laugh together. But until we meet again, I will hold on to the memories we made and the love we shared.

Thank you for being my dad. Thank you for everything. I love you forever and always.

“ Hey Jimmy. This is so hard for me. I miss you sooo much. My heart is so heavy and broken. I miss our Sundays talks before the football games. I miss you fussing at me because I did not call you for our weekly chats, and because I did not return your call fast enough. Who am going to call when I have car trouble, or need something fix in my house. Boy this is hurting my heart. I miss you and love you... Oh by the way I know I will always be your FAVORITE NIECE LOL.... it is not goodbye. It is see you way, way, way later.....
