“ I am his oldest biological Daughter Dominique Latavia Loo and although we drifted apart over the years and I have not seen him in almost 10 years you were an amazing dad. I hope the pearly gates is treating you well and give Papa lots of love from me!

“ We grew up together in elementary school and drifted apart in high school. The fun we had with Otis, Terrance and riding our skateboards. The memories of our youth as I often reflect on the past. Jimmy, the world is a better place with you in it. Goodbye for now my friend, Scott.

“ We first met Jimmy at Mike and Margaret's wedding. What a great guy! He was a busy girl dad at the wedding and reception with the youngest girls only being babies. He was personable and funny and had a million dollar smile. He was Margaret's baby brother, but was very protective of her. Our sympathies to all of his family. The world was a brighter place because of Jimmy Loo.
