“ I'm sorry to hear about Jocelyn, She was one of my best friends growing up. I always remembered her kind heart through out the years when I thought of her and the family. She was most definitely one of the hardest working women I know. I remember her being so determined with big dreams for her life. She is so compassionate and will do anything big or small to help someone. She just love to make people happy. Hadn't spoke to you guys in awhile but I've always thought about y'all and wish this wasn't why I'm reaching out. I know your family is a praying family, and I believe the Lord God will heal your pain. She knows now how life is precious and to truly live it to the fullest with the Lord God guiding your path. She has transition and sees the truth. I believe she wants her family to know she going to be fine and as unfortunate that this happened to her she wants her family to be happy just like she always wanted for you all. She wants to see you again. The Righteous will see the Kingdom of Heaven. I Do care for you all she has definitely made a imprint in my life and I well always think about her and the joy she gave.

“ In this difficult time in your life, may you find comfort in God’s word, the Bible. James 4:8 encourages; “Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you.”

“ My deepest sympathy in the loss of your dear family member. How comforting to know that when death claims one of our loved ones, others feel our pain and grief. Our loving heavenly father feels our pain as well. He offers comfort to us from his word the Bible. Psalm 34:18 reminds us that " Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit." And the beautiful promise for the future at Revelation 21:4 which says: “And he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away”. May these Bible truths help you to cope with the grief and sadness during this sad time.

“ My condolence to Ms. Jocelyn Hicks family, We can put full trust in what the bible say about the dead living again because God gave life to all living creatures so he certainly is capable of restoring life to someone who has died. (Acts 17:24,25)

“ To Stacie and Charles are hearts are so heavy hearing the transition of Jocelyn. May God strengthen you both with comfort and peace. We loved the girls and always looked forward to seeing them the times you would visit New Jersey. I remember our trips to Indiana to see your Mom which I will always cherish. We love you all. He prayers are with the family. Toni & Petey. Neptune, New Jersey
