“ At the end of each life is a legacy of love and memories. Hold tight to those memories.... Lean on each other for support. And look to God’s Word, the Bible, for comfort and strength. 1 Peter 5:7 encourages; “Throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you.”

“ We are very saddened to hear of your loss, and our thoughts and prayers are with your family in this time of sorrow. May your precious memories of happy times together help to ease the pain and bring you comfort during the most difficult days ahead. May God comfort your hearts and give you peace. 2 Thessalonians 2:16-17

“ We extend condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Bennett. God promises a future when "Your dead will live.... They will rise up." ~Isaiah 26:19. God empowered Jesus to resurrect dead ones when he was on the earth, giving us evidence of what he will do in the future. Jesus assures us..."I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25.

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy in the loss of your beloved family member. Words of comfort to help with the sadness and grief can be found at Psalm 147:3 which says: He (God) heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds. And the promise at Jeremiah 31:13b "I will change their mourning into exultation. I will comfort them and give them joy instead of their grief." May these scriptures comfort you at this time of bereavement.

“ My heartfelt condolences to the family of Joe Bennett. Losing a loved one in death is painful. It is such times like this that we should look to the Almighty God for comfort. Psalm 34:18 says, "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit."

May your reflection on this promise and your many fond memories of Joe give you the strength you need to endure this difficult time.
