“ Joe Ann and I grew up together in the long-term care industry. I am forever thankful for all she taught me over the years. She was a woman of grace, laughter, compassion, and strength. She was a role model to many and a fierce champion for our residents. Ms. Brew always mentored her staff with wisdom and led them with a strong velvet glove that made everyone want to do their best – she brought out the best in all of us. I send prayers of peace and comfort to her family and friends.

I will always cherish my wonderful memories of this amazing woman.

“ What can you say about a lady that meant so much to so many. She hired me 10 minutes into my interview. I still here her saying Syl. She was the sweetest person. Looked out for her staff and residents. She would bathe residents that's how dedicated she was. She made me understand what it meant to be a boss. When Deal or No Deal come on She would call and say, Syl you see that crazy fool. Sad I didn't get to visit her in Atlanta but so glad we kept in touch. Deepest condolences to Linda and the family. Rest well Ms. Brew, you'll truly be missed.
