“ It has been over forty eight year that Joe has been in my life, married to my sister. He has been one of the most loving and caring men I have known, such a great Husband an exceptional Father, and Grandfather a great provider and a very hard working man. I will always hold a special place in my heart for how you loved my sister and for giving me the most beautiful, intelligent neice and nephew you could ask for. You may be gone from this flesh on earth but not from our lives. We will meet again one day. Rest in peace brother-in-love, Joe Mack (your only sister in law) Puddin
