“ The "God of all comfort" is aware of your sorrow and he promises a future when "Your dead will live.... They will rise up." ~Isaiah 26:19. God empowered Jesus to resurrect dead ones in the past, giving us evidence of what he will do in the future. Remember... "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9. My condolences to you all...

“ I did not know Mr. Bennett, but I know what it means to lose loved ones. While grief is something we experience in different ways, we can all be comforted by the love of family and friends. The Bible tells us that well chosen words spoken at the right time can be more valuable than silver and gold. Jesus' words spoken at John 11:25 that he is the resurrection and the life, and that all those exercising faith in him though they will die, they will live again, are priceless. May you find comfort in them.

“ My deepest sympathy in the loss of your dear loved one. May you be comforted by the words expressed at Isaiah 26:19 ; Your dead will live. And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life. Psalm 34:18 also provides comforting words. It says: Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit.

“ Dear Bennett family:

I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.
