“ Family, Words can not express the heartache you all must be feeling right now. Losing a child is unimaginable, and I can't begin to understand the pain you all are going through. I pray that you all can find some comfort in knowing that Jonathan is now at peace in God's loving arms. I know firsthand the person Johnathan was and still will be. His love for his family and the peace he filled the room with when he walked in. His smile was contagious! I pray that God gives you all that peace "that passes all understanding" that we hear about so often, and that blessed assurance knowing that Johnathan couldnt bear another day without seeing his Saviour face to face. (He"s actually doing better than all of us right now.) No more worry, no more pain. He's always going to be alive in our hearts. I pray that God continues to surround all of you with His love and gives you strength during this incredibly difficult time. Please know that each of you are in my thoughts and prayers. May God grant comfort and healing in the days to come. Claire, Destinee, and Dajah

“ My deepest condolences to you Rose, phil and family. It's not cliché' to say this. It's God's word, and it says: To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. And there is nothing but absolute peace, healing, and wholeness in God's presence. Jonathan is experiencing that peace right now, and I am positive that God wants you to as well. "When tomorrow starts without him, don't think you're far apart for every time you think of him He'll be right there in your heart." I pray that God grants you serenity and peace in this difficult time. Our Love Faith Goring and family

“ Dear family. I worked with Jonathan and he was very professional and kind. I am very sorry to hear about the tragedy of his passing. We know he is with God. Heaven is for him now. I had a brother that had recently passed the same way that Jonathan did. My heart goes out to you. I am very glad I got to meet Jonathan. I believe his last wishes to his family and everyone is to live life to your highest and greatest good. Heaven holds Jonathan and my brother. God bless you

“ Dearest Rose, Phillip & Family; I didn't know your son but I wanted to share these words with you and the family. On that day the 30th of August, OUR CHRIST came to earth lighting the way in the form of an Angel. In HIS Love, Mercy & Grace HE gently took Jonathan wrapped in HIS warm comforting Arms, keeping him close to HIS Heart as HE took your Love one Home with HIM. It is your love for him that will keep him alive in your hearts forever until that time when you will meet again. May Father GOD fill your heavy hearts with HIS Peace and keep each of you close to HIS Heart. His light will forever shine so brightly. From My Family to yours please accept our deepest condolences. “ My condolences to Sister Rosa and Brother Phillip and family. Jonathan and I had signed up to take of toddlers at International national house of prayer. (Ihop) Jonathan was always calm easy to talk . While I stressed taking care of toddlers for the first time at any church. Jonathan did it with peace, Joy, and calmness. He always had a big smile and was always responsible and respectful. He had all the qualities that you want your son to have. I know he is rejoicing and smiling. God bless you Brother Manny

“Jonathan, my heart completely breaks that you were called home. I remember the times you would ask me about how my day went and what is something interesting that I learned. You’d say “Bubbles, what’s new with you?” And I’d huff and be as dramatic as I can be, and you’d just listen to me. We would have the most interesting conversations ever about documentaries on different criminal cases that we found interesting. I had the best debates with you and discussions. You were a wonderful advisor. You always gave me words of wisdom whenever I’d tell you that I had a bad or stressful day. You took the time to learn how to work the mixer board and projector. You didn’t know this, but you lessened my load by helping me every Sunday that you could. You made sure to be there early enough to have everything set before I even arrived. I didn’t think that the last conversation that I would’ve had would’ve been about how great of a baker Denisha is. Lastly, what a worshiper that you were. Everytime you opened your mouth to exalt and worship our God, I know the angels are dancing and rejoicing. I loved that you prayed with such power and boldness. Jonathan, you truly were my angel.

“Our deepest condolences to Sister Rose, Mr. Phillip and family. There’s not enough words that I can say to soothe the pain you’re feeling now, but remember earth has no sorrows that heaven cannot heal. I pray that God will give you strength as you go through this difficult time. It’s not easy, but keep trusting in God He will see you through.

“ Me and my wife were Jonathan’s youth pastors at Hope and Life Church. Jonathan was always such a respectful and sweet kid. His personality (at least at that time) was always pretty even. He didn’t tend to get too excited about much of anything...unless of course he was talking about God. That’s when he would perk up. Whenever I was around him back then, it seemed that his main life priority was always to try to do what was right in the eyes of God...everything else seemed to be secondary to him.

May we always take every opportunity to do our best to encourage and build up those around us. We can’t always know what people are walking through, and the type of hardship and suffering that they could be enduring.

We will be praying God grant peace to the Wint family even in the midst of their grieving.

We loved Jonathan and we will miss him.

“ My husband and I and my daughter are very sorry for your loss. I want y'all to know Jonathan was an inspiration to many of us at Jimmy Swaggart Bible college. His love for God, his love for the word of God had an impact on so many people. I'm sure the professors as well were inspired by Jonathan. God showed me in a dream that this young man was full of the word of God and that spoke volumes He attended a few bible studies my husband and I had. We are lost for words and will be praying for the family. Be encouraged. May you find comfort in Christ. John 14:1-4. Rest on Jonathan your work was short but had a great impact on the lives of many.

“ Jonathan was my coworker, I worked with him at Pizza Hut for a few years. I spent lots of night's with him closing. He is definitely a type of person you meet and never forget, he was always the sweetest I don't think I ever seen him really mad. He always stood out to me because of his strong faith in God, and his Great work ethic you can't find many young people these days that had a heart and a head on their shoulders but Jonathan was different, he will be missed by so many and my heart just breaks for the family. Rest in peace my friend! We love you and it's never Good bye it's always see you later.

“ Jonathan, I remember your sincere prayers week after week in the prayer room. Even though you were soft spoken, your heart would come alive in boldness and fire while you praised the Father and read the word. I remember your faithfulness and consistency week after week to meet in a little room in Stone Mountain to join with other believers in prayer. I know you will see the ripple effect of those consistent and enduring prayers. Jonathan, we love you and your family dearly. You will be greatly missed.
