

John Anthony Gilliam, Jr.

May 7, 1952 - August 21, 2016

On August 21, 2016 John Anthony Gilliam, Jr. joined with the angels to meet his savior. John was born on May 7, 1952 in Brooklyn, New York. John was a Veteran of the United States Marines and he retired from the City of Atlanta with 28 years of service as a Water Distribution Maintenance Supervisor. After retirement John became an Insurance Broker, which was another opportunity to help others. John is survived by his wife and best friend Sharonia Gilliam, his loving mother, Bernice Gilliam, two sisters; Gertrude M. Lee and Marsha Gilliam, children; Gerald Anthony Gilliam, Trival Shawon and Brandon Lee Gramby; Justin Gilliam, two-step sons; James T. Mitchell, III and Robert E. Lindsay, III, grandchildren; Natia Lindsay, Haliey Lindsay, Jordynn Gramby, Naasir Faulkner, Brandon Lee Gramby, Jr., Mckenzie Iyanna Gramby, Iyaunna Nevaeh, Jabrin Ervin, Azaria Kirsten, Ava Noelle Smith, Pharaoh Anthony Gilliam and a host relatives and friends.

John believed in God as his personal savior throughout his life and was Rich In Love. He was a man of few words, his two favorite sayings were: "All that Chatter don't Matter" and "Action speaks Louder than Words". He truly loved helping others, he was a wonderful son, husband, father and grandfather, you could always depend on him. John enjoyed spending time with his family, he cooked anything they wanted and he loved riding his motorcycle until his illness.

“ My condolences to the John Gilliam Family. At our 14th Street Complex it was always good seeing his smile at work whenever you saw him, and have him greet you and spend a few minutes talking in a very kind way. No matter what you may be going through John had a way of making your day bright with his smile and sweet spirit. He will be missed. Stay strong, for our God will se you all through this difficult time and the days ahead. "Earth Has No Sorrow That Heaven Cannot Heal." God Bless You All.
