“ My deepest condolences to my sweet cousin (Shawnnte) and her precious gift (Riley) from GOD above. I never really got to know John as well as I would have, but I know he was a good, honest, loyal, self respect man. Reading through some of these other post, I can honestly say he was loved. May GOD keep John closely wrapped in his arms and a watchful eye on his beloved family.

“ To my dear friend John,

In life you come across people for a season, and for a lifetime. When I met you, it was to find a new home for you and your beautiful wife, but to my wildest dream you became a lifetime friend.. you become my family.. my brother. I remember days when we talked about our family, our future, and our dreams. I remember the good days and the not so good days. I remembered the smiles and laughs we shared. I remember the times you came in not so nice and I tried to get you to smile. I remember the day, you got your diploma from college and you told me to keep going to get mine. I remembered we talked about Riley, sharing pictures of her and my grandson Brayden. I remember we had a "play date" for the kids when you got better....

Today, I celebrate your life. No more tears, no more pain, no more worry. Nothing but joy and happiness. Now you will be forced to smile! I will truly miss you, but I know God has you wrapped in his arms of love. I can't always say I have true friends, but to me, you was a friend, you were my family. As I sit here and write this letter to you, I know you are looking down and fearing honored, without smiling of course. I am so glad I was able to tell you know, you were my friend.. you were my family. I was able to let you know and you agreed with me and felt the same way. Always know that Riley has T.T. Kia here for her when she needs me.

One day we will catch you and you will tell me all about your adventure in Heaven.

Shawntee, I love you dearly and I am here. I send you prayers of strength, comfort, and courage. You will truly be missed. Rest in peace my friend!

-Your forever friend,

“ I extend condolences to you all. May God's secure resurrection promises comfort you as you look ahead to the time when "Your dead will live....They will rise up." ~Isaiah 26:19. Keep in mind...God empowered Jesus to resurrect dead ones in the past and "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." 1 John 4:9.

“ I want to offer my condolences to the Culliton family. It is a painful thing to lose a love one in death; even Jesus, when Lazarus died, "gave way to tears"(John 11: 35). It pains our Creator, too, and he has promised to bring our love one back to life at Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead will rise ...Awake joyfully you residents in the dust! ...the earth will let those powerless in death come to life" then "he will swallow up death forever ..." (Isaiah 25:8). I hope these words give you comfort.
