“ Uncle Marshall, was one of my favorite uncles of all-times! No matter what, he was always real, patience, loving and kind, just to name a few. When he's around, nothing but smiles. Very peaceful man!! Love you Uncle Marshall.

Giving Honor to the only, and dearest Father that, I have ever had, and will always love, and remember. I will never forget the good family reunion that we had in Lynchburg Va. Every good thing that he did for the family, and gave to this country when he was in the military will be remembered forever.

“ Uncle Marshall will be truly missed. He was always the one to want the family to get together. He would send out his letters with dates on where he would be traveling to visit family VA, OH, WV etc. and suggestions for times to get together. He reminded me so much of my dad, just want people to enjoy themselves. Love you Uncle Marshall 🥺

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mr Dawson.

I remember seeing Mr. Dawson in his yard "everyday" working diligently. His yard is immaculate, he always had a project he was working on and he was a very friendly neighbor. I miss seeing him as I drive by his home I don't see him on the outside. It doesn't seem the same not seeing him busy working in the yard.

“ My Uncle Marshall was my favorite uncle. He was hilarious and always in good mood. I remember as a little girl when mom and dad took my siblings and I on vacation to his home in Virginia when he was stationed in the Navy. We always had a great time. When Uncle Marshall lived in Virginia Beach, Tim and I visited him and Aunt Rosie. He had a pool in his backyard and the landscaping was immaculate. They both made us feel so welcomed in their home. While there visiting, I asked him about this little plastic flat item that you used to scrape food off dishes and pans. He had an extra one and gave it to me. I still have it and use it to this very day. (About 20 years)

When my dad got sick, he along with his posse (Aunt Juanita, Aunt Jane, Uncle Pee Wee) was there for my mom and me and siblings. They came to visit my dad frequently until his eventual passing. We all love them for that.

When my siblings and I celebrated our mother's 80th Birthday. Again, Uncle Marshall, Uncle Pee Wee, and Aunt Juanita were there in celebration for her. My siblings and I allowed the audience to stand and say a few words about mom. Uncle Marshall eventually stood up to speak. I will never forget what he said. He said, I have known Pearl for a long time. He said Pearl was his favorite sister-in-law. He also said, I couldn't stand Pearl sometimes because she would not let my dad go and hang out with him. Everyone in the room busted out with laughter. That is one of those hilarious moments. When all the Dawsons siblings were together, it was a treat. We would be in amazement because they all talked to so fast that we could sometimes hardly understand what they were saying. They all knew and understood each other well.

When my mom was admitted to the hospital this past summer, Uncle Marshall called and checked on her all the time. He told me he was nervous because initially he could not get in touch with any of us to see what was going on. He was so relieved to eventually to know that she was going to be okay.

Uncle Marshall was very good about keeping in touch with everyone. He was a responsible, thoughtful, and loving man. He loved his family dearly especially Aunt Rosie. Aunt Rosie was Uncle

Marshall's soulmate. He was very happy and always spoke highly of her. He loved his children and was the best father he could be to them. He loved his nieces and nephews. He always asked how we were doing and was interested in what was going on in our lives and encouraged us to pursue our dreams. I will miss him tremendously. Uncle Marshall, I know you are up in heaven along with your parents and siblings. We will all meet again one day in that bright and wonderful world. Until then, rest in heaven. I love you.
