“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Mr. John Jackson III. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. We can find comfort in God’s word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ My Dearest Friend. The times in life we shared were full of joy, laughter and memories that are embedded in my heart forever. No one, could ever be the wonderful friend, you were to me. I say these words out loud as I talk to you while writing this. Friend to describe you best; a great Father, Son, Brother , family man, friend to many and dedicated employee. And your ability to talk on the phone with me for hours. LOL. Good thing we had unlimited phone minutes. So many reasons why I love you and always will. God took His Angel home and that Angel was you. Your Friend Jakki.

“ To the Family and Friends of Mr. Jackson: I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death recently. I offer condolences and reminders of God's provision to resurrect dead ones. God cares for us and he knows the pain of death.(John 3:16). He made a provision to assure us: "The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29). Jesus confirmed his role in this provision when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). Remember..."God's Word is truth." (John 17:17).
