“ I want more co-workers like John. He was funny, encouraging, helpful, and always willing to lent his ears. He was a good friend, someone who I trust and respect, and a blessed brother-in-Christ! I am so sad that I no longer can hear your funny jokes and your words of wisdom, but I am grateful to know that you are no longer in pain. You ran a great race and are finally home. I'll miss you dearly for now, but I will see you later in our Heavenly Papa's House!!

“ I recall my first business trip to Georgia many, many years ago, when I first met John he worked in Cash Management and thought that he was one of the nicest persons I had met that day. Through the years and a couple of visits more, as we moved to different positions within our respective companies, we tried to keep in touch even if it was just to talk about his mission trips and how much it meant to him. It was a great surprise and great sadness to hear of his passing but knowing him, he is with his Lord. We celebrate his life - a life well lived. Our prayers are with his family that they will feel the comfort of his Lord during this very painful time.

“ I find it hard to grapple with John’s departure. He was a person with a big heart and great to work with. He was a very spiritual person and I truly adored him for loving his family. I pray he rests in eternal peace. May God welcome him in heaven and reward him for his good deeds.

“ My deepest sympathy to the Jutan family!!! I have worked with John for a lot of years. Every time I would have to go to him for an answer, he will always greet me with a Jamacian accent and I will answer with my Trinidadian accent. We would both laugh and get back to work. John, I know that you are resting in the arm of the Father because you knew him and you served him well. From Glenda Douglas
