“ Dear Lewis Family: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loved one. May the love and support of family and friends comfort you greatly during this difficult time. May you also receive comfort in knowing you are not alone. The sting of death is like a shroud that covers mankind, and he can't fully live to his potential because of his life being cut short. Very soon death will be no more!

“ Mr. and Mrs. Lewis are two of the kindest people my family has met since moving to Decatur 7 years. Mr. Lewis was always there to smiling and working in his yard. We live next door to Mr. Lewis and always looking for to his decorations every Thanksgiving. He has been a blessing in our lives and we loved him like a father. He will be truly missed. Thanks for everything, Mr. Lewis. Your neighbors Mr. Kevin and Mrs. Teresa Maximus.

“ The neighbor who knows the neighbors is how I would describe the kind-spirited "Mr. John!" We will miss his green thumb beautifying the street and his holiday happiness reflected in the lights.

“ Uncle John,

I will miss hearing your very unique laugh whenever I came over to visit you and auntie, but the word of God says, to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord. Rest in his arms now - - Uncle. My prayers go out to the family.
