“ I served with John at the 700th Airlift Squadron. John helped me learn how to be a better C-130 Loadmaster. He was always a pleasure to be around and to work with. He treated me like a son. We shared many laughs together about the Air Force and our sports teams. He loved his Raiders. I just found out that he passed. He will be missed on earth, but he is smiling in Heaven.

“ Yvette, our hearts are terribly saddened by the loss of your hero, but we are sure of two things: 1. John scored the game winning touchdown, and 2. You will always and forever be his “FIRST ROUND DRAFT PICK!!” May God comfort and strengthen you and the family in the moments, days, weeks, months and years to come!
And may you always feel His presence. We're praying for you! 🙏❤️
