“ I’m so sorry to hear this so late. When I called John in 2023 on his birthday—something I’d done every year since he drove for us—I was told I had the wrong number. I knew I didn’t. In that moment, I felt deep down that he had transitioned. Today, on his birthday again, I decided to check—and I’m saddened to learn it is so.

I’m grateful for the many chats we shared over the years about food (especially fried fish!), people, life, and the balance of it all. John, I will always remember your feisty conversations about current events and people’s behavior, your sharp wit, and your deep love for your family. Thank you for your dedication, work ethic, and kindness.

My heartfelt condolences to the family.
