“ My sincere condolences go out to you and your family for your loss. During Jesus’ Millennial Reign, obedient subjects of God’s Kingdom will grow to perfection, eventually becoming completely free from all the effects of Adam’s sin. (Romans 8:21) Jehovah “will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces.” (Isaiah 25:8)

“ My heartfelt condolences go out to the family and friends. Mr. Jenkins. I pray that Jehovah, the God of peace grants you the mental peace and comfort mentioned in his word the Bible at Phillipians 4:6,7 urging this difficult time. I know loosing a loved one in death is a tragedy, however we look forward to a joyful time in the near future when Gods Kingdom (mentioned at Matthew 6:10) will rule over mankind. Under that Kingdom "no resident will say I am sick". (Isaiah 33:24) There will be no death nor tears. (Revelation 21:3,4) The loved ones we lost in death will be resurrected. (John 5:28,29) We will live forever here on earth in the abundance of peace.(Psalms 37:11) Meditate on Gods word, and draw close to our Heavenly Father Jehovah in prayer during this difficult time. visit jw.org for more scriptural comfort on dealing with the loss of a loved one.

“ To the Family:

I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I encourage you all to keep in mind that "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9. God made this provision at great cost to himself, showing his love for us. We can put full trust in the words recorded at John 3:16... "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten Son, so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed but have everlasting life." God is faithful and always keeps his promises! (Revelation 21:3-5, Joshua 23:14)
