“ While donating platelets today at the Red Cross Donation Center in Washington, DC, I had the honor of reading about this courageous soul. I searched her name afterward and was deeply saddened to learn that she recently passed.

Johnetta—and so many others in need—are the reason I donate. I send my deepest prayers, love, and blessings to her family and all who knew and loved her.

“ My deepest condolences go out to the Goolsby Family during this time of loss of such a beautiful soul. I can still remember seeing her for the first time when my son and I ran into you all at Johnson Park one Saturday. You all were such a beautiful Family and Johnetta had such a beautiful smile. That’s what I will always remember about her.

May the Family be comforted by God’s presence and may she rest in Heavenly peace. God’s got her now!❤️

“ I was always inspired by Johnetta's Facebook posts of strength and courage, especially when I was fighting breast cancer. She was such a sweet little girl at BMG and it was a pleasure to watch her grow into a powerful young woman on Social media. Blessings to her daughter, parents, family and friends as they celebrate her young and impactful life.

“ It's hard to put into words what an incredible person she was but if I had to choose just a few, they'd be kind, genuine, and unapologetically herself. She had this beautiful way of showing up for everyone no matter who you were or what you were going through, she was there with open arms, a listening ear, and a heart full of love.

She was the kind of person who made you feel seen and safe just by being around her. Her laughter could fill a room, her smile could lift anyone's spirit, and her presence made even the toughest days feel a little lighter. She never tried to be anyone else and that's what made her so special. She was real, honest, and full of life.

Whenever she came into my classroom my spirits immediately lifted. She left an indelible mark on all the people that she met. She knew how to make an impression. I cannot express how grateful I am to have had her in my life. Rest in Peace. I love and miss you.

“ My netta! I can't believe I'm even writing these words right now. Loyal, funny, fighter, rider, lowkey OCD 🤔 are just a few words I could use to describe you. Always made sure your people were good. I love you in this life and the next. We both know to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord and I just know you up there causing ruckus. Save me a seat girlie! Love you, your Baby Mama ☐

“ To my Goo! I will always cherish and remember our fun & crazy times together. Me, you, Sampson & Moses always shared great laughs and memories together. Our bond was priceless. You were as funny as you were stubborn 😂
But one thing about it, you loved us and you loved The Lord 🙏 and I will never, ever forget you. Rest well, Sis. We will also make sure Peyton is good! Her aunts have her 🙏💕💕
Love you forever,

“ Ms. Goolsby had a presence you could feel. She had the kind of energy that filled a room with laughter and life. She was never one to stand back quietly. She jumped in, hands on and ready to help wherever she was needed.

If something was going wrong, she was already there, sleeves rolled up, cracking a joke to keep everyone calm while she got things done. She didn't just care, she showed it again and again in all the ways that mattered. She made people feel seen, supported, and part of something good.

Her daughter Peyton carries that same spirit, warm, bright, and full of heart, and it's clear that her mom's light lives on through her.

To Peyton: I've been thinking about you so much and keeping you close to my heart. I'll never forget how you put your whole heart and soul into singing for Honor Chorus. I hope you never lose that beautiful song your mama put in you. I still think about you remembering all the words to those songs and singing them to me in the hallway long after I'd forgotten them myself. That always made me laugh, and it's one of my favorite memories of you. You have so much of your mom's strength and warmth in you, and I hope you always feel her love around you and know how many people see her spirit shining in you.

To Ms. Goolsby: You made Shoal Creek better and people stronger just by being yourself. I hope you knew how much you were appreciated and how much laughter you brought into people's lives. Rest easy. You gave so much, and you'll never be forgotten.
