**Obituary for Johnnie Mae Billups**

Johnnie Mae Billups, a cherished resident of Peachtree Corners, Georgia, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, November 26, 2025, at the age of 98. Born on September 4, 1927, in Coosada, Alabama, Johnnie Mae lived a life marked by love, resilience, and dedication to her family.

As a devoted homemaker, Johnnie Mae was the heart and soul of her family, providing warmth and strength through her unwavering support and generosity. Her nurturing spirit and commitment to her loved ones left a lasting impact on all who had the privilege of knowing her. She was renowned for her extraordinary cooking, gracious hospitality, and the deep kindness she extended to friends and strangers alike.

Johnnie Mae's journey in life was guided by her deep faith and her love for her community. She was actively involved in Friendship Baptist Church in Buffalo, New York, where she nurtured lifelong friendships and inspired others with her compassion and humility.

Johnnie Mae's legacy is cherished by her family, friends, and all those whom she touched with her gentle spirit and kind heart. Her memory will forever be a beacon of love and grace.

A funeral service to celebrate Johnnie Mae's remarkable life will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, December 13, 2025, at Friendship Baptist Church in Buffalo, New York. Family, friends, and all who were touched by her kindness are invited to attend and pay their respects.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Homes & Crematory - South Dekalb.

In remembrance of Johnnie Mae Billups, may we all be inspired to lead lives filled with love, kindness, and unwavering faith.
