“ Dear Harp Family; While reading the online obituary, I observed the death of your love one. Death is an enemy to mankind and who can understand it? It can and dose have a devastating effect on you and your family as well. Can you imagine reading a newspaper with the headline; When Death is Swallowed Up Forever..... What a wonderful time that will be. Revelation 21:4 offers this hope, it states: And he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will morning nor outcry nor pain anymore. The former things have passed away. What a comforting hope. If you would be interested in learning even more, I can send you a little tract that is entitle What Hope for Dead Loved Ones? If you have any Questions please feel free to contact me at this e-mail address here (b.molina56@yahoo.com). I offer my sincere condolences, may the God of peace be with you and your family. Sincerely Yours, Brandy Molina

“ If you could see where Jesus brought him from to where he is today. Then you would know the reasons why, he loved Him so...you can take this worlds wealth and its riches, he didn't want earths fame...it was his desire to live for Him. My heart is heavy and overjoyed at the same time for brother Johnny. I will miss him tremendously. When I gave my life to Christ a fresh and anew in 1993, he bought me my first study Bible. He gave me one of the greatest gifts of my life, the Word of God. I will never forget him My thoughts and prayers go out to his family, his church and those who loved him greatly. I live in NC and cannot attend his services in the flesh but I will be there in spirit. Lord bless and I will see you in Glory brother Johnny. Even so, come quickly Lord Jesus. “ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings much grief and agony, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God's word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Taking in true knowledge of the true God and his son Jesus, assures us eternal life. (John 17:3)
