“ Mr. Nance used to visit us at our restaurant. He was such a kind man. I enjoyed the stories Yolande used to share about him and some of their daily talks. You will be truly missed Sir. 🙏

“ My Daddy and mentor. Dad you taught us how to be respectful, responsible and honest kids. We're so blessed to have had you as our father. Dad I hope I made you proud. I still remember when I came to you and said I wanted to join the military. Your words were (That's a good idea, go and become somebody. I LOVE You SON).Dad you are my hero.R.I.P

“ Now JB(lol) that's what I was calling you when I first met you until Ma(Yolanda) said JD - How you like this lady and she don't even know your name 😂.. I miss walking in the house asking you how your day was and what you ate. You called me the lady with the sweet voice. I miss your presence and laughter. Though our timing was brief I am grateful that I was able to meet you. When you catch some good Catfish send me one. 🍷 Nica

“ He will always be missed. Even now while thinking of all the good times we shared going fishing in fla. Fishing all day and night staying on the bridge taking naps in between fish biting. Going to the casino's. Going to the movies and falling to sleep as soon as the movie started. In the early years going out to eat at an all night restaurant on Candel rd. Or going to Krispy Kreme on Ponce in the middle of the night to get some hot doughnuts. My condolences to the entire family. He will be missed.

“ To a wonderful and loving Man, JD. One who I will never forget the things he taught me over the years.
Just looking back over the time line makes me smile with greatness. All I can say is, I love and miss him dearly. It hurts ... Love Maxx.

“ Daddy I love you and, really going to miss our after work talks. I'm not going to have anyone to tell me to put the phone down and go rest. I love you but God love you more I understand that he needed you for another mission...
Gone but never will I forget our good times together.
