“ *Dear Daddy,
I still can't believe you're gone. I have to admit that I was selfish. I wanted you stay with me forever. You were sick and your body was tired. You know I'm going to keep the family together and make sure we all stick together. Thank you for being the best daddy a girl could ask for. I love you forever. As you always called me "your baby"*

Mrs. Tolbert, I was so sorry to hear that you had lost your husband, Mr Johnnie. He always seemed to be a humble, quiet person whenever we, my husband and I would see him. You have always been kind. To you and Jonasha and your family, you are in our prayers and just remember that "Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal". May God strengthen you day by day.
