“ Hey Daddy. Today marks 1 year && 9 months since you have been gone. It's sad you didn't get enough love when you was here. And still don't when you are gone. But since you been gone people like to mention you only when they are in the wrong. You will never get replaced by me because that is impossible. You don't have to NEVER worry about a dude trying to be in your grandkids ( My kids) life. There is NOBODY else like you in this world. I'm happy & grateful that you loved all your kids. You made us feel like we was enough no matter what. You was our protector and you would've went to war about us. We miss having that unconditional love. That feeling that we would never have to worry. The feeling of being SAFE. Since you passed we no longer have any of that. If I had one wish it would be be to have you back. I miss you && love you so much Daddy. I will be back on Yuli 2nd birthday.

“ April 26 2026

Daddy I know you see everything from the day you passed. You see how fast people moved on to the next. You was totally right about that. You said we was going to get kicked to the curb as if we was nothing. I fussed with you to defend folks but I'm WOMAN enough to say sorry daddy. You and God see I'm not doing no wrongs I'm trying to fix the wrongs and make the situations better before it all crumble down. I been seeing everything you was telling me I really do. I just wish GOD himself could come down and set people straight when they play victim. Aint no way this is supposed to be like that I hate you had to go so early you was there for us through everything. You made sure everything was done when it needed to be. You were we the BEST parent a kid could ask for. You know how much I miss you I talk to you alot even though tho you can't speak back. Ima make sure teach them not to be like others and to always be their self no matter what. I love you daddy && continue to watch over me && mines. Will be back tomorrow ☐💕

“ Hey Daddy. I'm so sorry I didn't come in Easter 4/5/26. I've really been trying to be there for momma. I try to do what I can but I'm not you. Only you knew what to do & how to do it. It's killing me inside watching everything play out as it do. Don't get me wrong you told us what to do when you gained your wings. But dang you knew it wasn't gonna be possible when there is a vulnerable person. Someone who didn't need a soul for nothing in this world because she had you. I mean the same went for me but it's hard Daddy. I see exactly why you was the way you was. You told me before you left you said T it's finna get hard out here && it's gonna get crazy so be prepared. Make sure you have everything you need for when that time comes. I know I'm not all the way ready just yet but I still make sure I remember what I need to be doing. I just wish you could come back to fix something so momma them could be good again. I'm overwhelmed && overly stressed. I'm the bright side guess what momma let me get you so you're at home with me until momma fix something. I love you so much daddy && miss you so daily. Be back on your 2nd grandson birthday 🥹💕💕

“ Hey Daddy. Thank you for making me feel like I was good enough to be your daughter. Thank you for NEVER trying to replace us. Thank you for not ever calling me selfish when something was right that came out my mouth. Things was said to me as if what you gave wasn't enough our family that you help create isn't big enough so strangers must be added. Just know you're not the only one who have ever been blamed for someone else mistakes. I miss you so much at times I want to be with you but I know you would want me to stay here to make sure my babies are good and don't turn out like folks. But it's just hard having half of the people who are supposed to care about you faking it and been moved away from you when you wasn't even gone long. I know the messed up things that's going on you would never attempt to do to us because you're the one with the biggest heart. Your kids & grandkids came before any & everybody. Your family was literally your main priority you taught me to always pay attention to people when they're showing their true colors. It hurt so bad that I no longer have a dad here and have another parent who seem to don't love as should. I have would never be enough just wish you would still be here with me today 😭😭

It's so many things that only you could help me understand like no one else. I'm completely clueless about so much. My babies didn't even get to go to Public school which you know I hate not having them in. Today has been so stressful plus all the pain I've been having. I just miss you so much & wish you was here cause you would straighten everybody out about the way they be acting. You knew me better than anybody can tell when something is wrong or when I'm not feeling well. I'm so happy that I got to have those conversations with you when you was apologizing for everything that happened. See everybody take stuff & run with it but Im happy that you knew & I knew so ya. “ Daddy I Know I Last Wrote On Oct 20th. Things Have Been Getting Worse Where I Am At. I've Been Trying To Be Humble As You Told Me Weeks Before You Was Called Home. But It's Hard Daddy It Really Is Because I Feel Like People Are Just Mistreating Us 10 Times Worser Because You're Not Here To Protect Us Mainly Me. Everything You Ever Told Us About Certain People Has Come To The Light. They Are What You Said They Was You Warned Us You Did But They Won't Have Me For Much Longer Just Watch Daddy Ima Disappear Again Cause All They Doing Is Thinking Of Their Selves. I Only Care About Me If I Have Something To Give Or If It Benefits Them. I Try Not To Let Them It To Me But I'm At My Lowest. Than My 28th Birthday On Christmas And You Ain't Here To Celebrate Yuli 1st Christmas. Plus Yo 44th Birthday 8 Days After My Birthday With Is You && Momma Marriage Anniversary. Just Wish Heaven Could Receive Phone Calls Because I Could Talk To You Daily. Love Your T Baby 💕💕💕

“ Daddy you told me to be humble while I'm going through this storm and that everything will fall in place all I have to do is be patient which is what I've been doing since you're not here for me to talk to you was the only person who could understand me the most nobody could take your place in my heart no matter what others are doing while using your death for their behavior Im literally up at 12:53am thinking about our talks and us having our father daughter moments i miss you so much daddy

“ Daddy yesterday made 2 months since you been gone. Your T Baby Cried a lot but have been trying to be strong. I miss you so much. I know I failed you by not keeping everything in place but like I told you when I was younger I can't handle stuff without out. Everything is out of control daddy when I say out of control I can't as in stuff you didn't condone. Life has gotten harder without you. You was always one call away daddy now I don't have nobody. All you plans aren't happening and everything you said would happen is really happening. I'm so hurt because the last time my babies && I saw you was July 9th. And the last time I talked to you was July 26 we was on FaceTime laughing. Daddy I need you more than ever.

“ I Remember When I Got Pregnant At 19 I Thought You Would've Been Mad But You Wasn't You Just Was Hoping For A Grandson Which Didn't Happen 🤔 But Ima Skip To When I Gave Birth To Your First Granddaughter You Was Right There By My Side Along With Momma, Dee, My 2 Aunties , Dee Mother, Jermaine && Kinnie. That Day You Was Telling Me That I Could Do It Because You Didn't Raise No Punk && I Did It Without That Epidural Cause You Said Im Not Telling Them Stick My Baby. You Taught Us To Be Strong && Humble No Matter The Situation You Even Prepared Us For The Day When God Would Call You Home But Its Hard Trying To Be Strong Even Tho I Do Try It's Gonna Take Time Tho Because It Was Always The 8 Of 😭😭😭

“ Daddy 😭 You Remember When I Bought You A Phone Because Yours Was Messed Up. You Couldn't Afford To Buy A New One Due To Taking Care Of Everything (Bills && Us). So I Surpassed You With One && It Was An Updated One Of The One You Already Had. You Was So Happy Than You Went Somewhere One Day && Misplaced It. Someone Ended Up Stealing It From The Place. You Was Sad Because You Thought I Was Going To Be Mad Because You Always Kept Up With The Things I Bought You. I Remember Saying Daddy I'm Not Mad At You I Can Buy Another One But You Was Like No Don't Spend Your Money Again. Daddy Your T Baby Is Missing You So Much 😭😭
