“ To the family: We offer heartfelt condolences and encouragement from God's Word. Jesus stated: Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me. (John 14:1). The familiar scripture recorded at John 3:16 assures us that God cares for you: For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten Son, in order that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed but have everlasting life.

“ Our prayers go out to Johnny's family along with God amazing grace. I can remember Johnny as a student leader at ABAC. “ I was saddened to read about Johnny's transition -- yet, absent from the body, present with God. I have very fond memories of Johnny from our classes, especially the Spanish class. Can you imagine Johnny speaking Spanish with his wonderfully slow drawl? It was an honor to know him. It is my prayer that God will grant strength and peace to his family at Johnny's homegoing.

“ Johnny, your life was a light for so many people...especially me. I never will forget how you encouraged me to further my education. I never will forget the many weekends when you came home from college and you visited me...you brought me college brochures and admissions applications. Because of you, I received an associate degree from ABAC. Never will I forget when I followed you to West Georgia College because I wanted to be close to you throughout my college years. You will always have a dear and special place in my heart. Love always, Carolyn McKenzie
