

Johnny Wayne Williams

October 25, 1962 - March 29, 2026

Johnny Wayne Williams was born on October 25, 1962, in Hope, Arkansas, to the late Horman and Ruby (Coleman) Williams.

Throughout his growing-up years, he attended New Bethel Baptist Church. As an adult, he moved his membership to Rush Memorial Congregational Church in Atlanta, Georgia. He graduated from Hope High School, Hope, Arkansas, Guthrie Job Corp. Guthrie, Oklahoma and Langston University, Langston, Oklahoma with a Bachelor of Science in Sociology and Criminal Justice.

His military service included a stint with the United States Air Force. During Johnny's free-time his love of music particularly jazz kept him attending as many jazz concerts as possible. Johnny liked traveling across the country visiting his family and friends, touring museums and places of historical interest and entertainment.

Johnny's strong work ethic led to employment with the Federal Bureau of Prisons (Atlanta, Georgia) as a correctional officer until his retirement. While we think he left us too soon we are grateful for our brief years together.

Johnny is predeceased by his parents; brothers: Ned Williams (Vallejo, CA), Harmon Williams (Hope, AK), David Williams (Hope, AK), and Michael Charles Williams (Atlanta, GA). Our loved one has left to mourn his passing, his wife Virginia; step-daughter: Lashanda (Martin) Berewa (Atlanta, GA); step-son: Derrick Johnson (Lexington, KY); step-granddaughter: Kristen Dawson (Atlanta, GA); sisters: Mrs. Mavis McMullen (Atlanta, GA), Mrs. Wilma (Flint) Amenejekere (Long Beach, CA), Mrs. Ruth Williams (Houston, TX); brothers: Mr. Willis E. (Elaine) Williams, Mr. Marvin A. Williams, Mr. Percy G.
