“ Jonathan,

No living being could ever understand the love we shared. You were so many things to me. I will always love you. I hate that time and schedules kept us from taking that vacation we always dreamed about. You will live in my heart until our hearts meet again. I love you always...

“ Jonathan was/is a respectful, nice, and sweet young man. I remember when he was born and how he grew into an awesome young man. Heaven has another angel, Now he has his wings. I am praying for his parents, family, and friends that we may learn to accept the things we can not understand as we heal but not forget! We Love You Always!!!
