“ The fact you have been gone since august and I had no idea is so heart breaking! Never would I ever image you not being here you was such a genuine person I met you so long ago and we was such a huge distance but we never lost touch not till early this year and my heart hurts just to think of it so down to earth loving and respectful ! I was I love with everything about you luuuuvvvvv you always baby

“ Jordan worked with me at Golden Krust a couple years ago and he was such a genuine, funny, and down to earth person. He was always nice too, I never heard him talk down on anyone. He was truly a light to be around. I remember talking to him a few times about his older brother and how he looked up to him. After he left Golden Krust, he said he worked at the farmers market and that he was moving 30 minutes away. I had no idea he joined the military at all! I'm heartbroken & at a loss for words. Rest In Peace Jordan, I'll miss you forever.

“ This is heart breaking. The last time I saw you, you were about 8-9 years old. Your brothers and you played with my sister and I all the time. Rest in peace Jordan.

“ The thoughts of you being gone seem so unreal , I sat at the candlelight in pure silence; Some things are better left unsaid, & honestly I'm going to miss you man...Just seeing you post on Instagram updating your life journey basically letting me know you we're doing better & I am so proud of you ! But it's to late a mistress is what I feel hidden in darkness.... my condolences to the family ❤️
