“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Mr. Joseph H Canady. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief, but you can find comfort and hope in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15; John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow, you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ My condolences to the family of Joseph Canady. When we lose a loved one in death, a void is opened that can never be filled. Our Heavenly Father is aware of the pain and sorrow you are experiencing. At 2Corinthians 1:3,4, he is referred to as, " the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials." He promises at Revelation 21:3,4 to do away with the issues that plague all mankind today, such as sickness and death. What a wonderful hope for our deceased loved ones. I hope that his words, as well as the love and support from family and friends, will be a source of strength and encouragement in the days ahead.

“ To the Family:
I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. I offer condolences and Scriptural encouragement to you all. God's Word promises..."the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out.' (John 5:28,29). Jesus said..."I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). God is faithful and always keeps his promises! (Joshua 23:14).
