“ To the family and friends of Joseph Michael Chambers, there are no words. I love my Joe Joe. I'm so sorry I called his cell phone today and have been calling for 2 weeks. I was told today, he died and was buried yesterday. I'd of liked to have known. Joe has been my friend/brother for the past 28 years. I'm glad he is with our Lord and Savior. See you later Joe! “ Prayers and condolences for family and friends. Joe will be forever remembered as an extraordinary man with talent, Faith, a sense of humor and a tremendously positive attitude. He was known and loved by many. He found ways to live life to the fullest, not allowing anything to limit him. He is an inspiration. RIH, friend. Susan Anderson

“ I will forever remember this infectious smile. Joe never met a stranger. He would come see me every day at work and get his coke-cola. I may have known Joe for a short time, but I will have a lifetime to remember him. Joe is with god now and no longer suffering. Rest easy Joe you are missed dearly by so so many.
