“ We can put full trust in what the Bible says about the dead living again because God gave life to all living creatures so he certainly is capable of restoring life to someone who has died (Acts 17:24,25). O. Harris

“ My condolences to the Comeaux family in the loss of your dear loved one. When we experience a death of someone we love, it pains our hearts. Our loving God Jehovah understands how we feel, and he offers us comfort by means of his word the Bible. Psalm 147:3 says: He (God) heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds. The comforting words at Revelation 21:4 tells us: And he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. May these scriptures bring comfort and calmness of heart to you at this time of bereavement.

“ John 14:1-3 New Living Translation (NLT)

Jesus, the Way to the Father

14 "Don't let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God, and trust also in me. 2 There is more than enough room in my Father's home.[a] If this were not so, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you?[b] 3 When everything is ready, I will come and get you, so that you will always be with me where I am.

Hope this translation brings comfort because this is a great loss to us on earth but victory in the eyesight of God.

Pastor Joseph Comeaux has been my pastor since 2009. He loved the lord, his family and his church. He often taught us to have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and to serve others. He truly exemplified what being a pastor really is. I will never forget my pastor and will cherish the time we had him. My condolences to the family and you all will be in my thoughts and prayers. May God surround you with his love and peace.
