“ Rome Georgia family and friends were saddened to hear of Joe’s departure from this earth. Our condolences and prayers go out to the Dallas family.

My funniest memory of Joe was when he was trying to deliver a message and a man kept interrupting him. Joe in his kind way kept trying to finish his speech and the man kept interrupting. Finally, Joe’s brother H. James stepped in and said to the man “I’m not as nice as my brother, so keep quit while I talk”. The man kept quit. Joe just smiled as he was accustom to doing.

“ My sincere condolences to my Dallas family. I am so sorry to hear this news. Joe Joe and I had such good times together as kids. He, with his infectious smile and always made me laugh. Sad is an understatement. I only got the news on his burial day and therefore couldn't attend with such short notice. I will miss him terribly. He will always hold a place in my heart! I can be reached @ 240 557-9183. I live in Maryland since leaving home. Say hello to everyone for me. I love and miss you all!!

“ The Price family extends our deepest condolences and love to Pam and the Dallas family and relatives. Our family came to know Major Dallas through his working relationship with our beloved mother, Flora Price, at the Atlanta Police Dept. And It was just 6 months ago, he spoke highly of our mother at her memorial service, and we are forever grateful for that. Mom admired him and our family admired him too. He was a good man with a welcoming and fun-loving spirit. Our heart goes out to the Dallas family. -Peace, Strength, and comfort to you all. - Charlotte, on behalf of the Price Family

“ Dallas was one of my first friends made at The Temple. At first intimidated by him, I quickly learned what a sweet, caring man he was. Dallas and I both lived on the east side so he always made sure I knew of accidents, delays, etc on my way home down 20. He was always looking for my car on the ride home and surprised me often with a toot of the horn or quick siren blast to give me a wave as he passed by. What a great guy and I know he will be missed. God bless him and his sweet family.

“ As long time members of The Temple, Major Dallas was a wonderful part of The Temple family. His warm and welcoming smile made him a great ambassador for The Temple. When my children were small, they knew that he would look out for them. He will be missed by all who were fortunate enough to know him.

“ Every year when I would attend the high holiday services at the Temple it was Dallas's sweet smile and handshake that let me know I was safe and secure. Nothing will ever be the same in the sanctuary without him amongst all the hundreds of people that he touched by his smile and reassuring stance. He was a rarity among men and one I was blessed to know. My heart breaks for you that he was taking so soon. Marianne Weinberg-Benson
