Joseph Hodges Sr. was born in St. George, South Carolina, on August 2, 1932, to the late Friendly and Annie Hodges. For 53 years, he was the beloved husband of the late Victoria Hodges. In addition, he was an incredibly proud dad and a doting grandfather until the Lord called him home on January 30, 2022.

After leaving the military, he worked for many years in construction and at Stokes Molded Products as a fabricator.

While in Trenton, Joseph followed in his father's footsteps by attending Asbury United Methodist Church under the leadership of Rev. Fredrick Arnold. He joined Shiloh Baptist Church later in life, under the leadership of the late Rev. Dr. S. Howard Woodson Jr, and Rev. Dr. Darrell L. Armstrong, where he was honored for his contributions to the congregation. In 2003, Joseph migrated south and returned to his roots. He spent 12 years in Concord, NC, a suburb of Charlotte. There he attended Oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Franklin D. Watkins. He spent his final years in Lithonia, Georgia.

He is predeceased by his late son: Joseph Hodges, Jr., four sisters: Doretha Hodges, Elease Bullock, Mary Davis, Martha Ponton, and Amanda Gibbons and three brothers: Lone Hodges, Sr., Herbert Hodges and James (Wilmie)Hodges.
