“ Joe was an imposing presence with an impressive booming voice that inspired respect and reflected dignity. He accomplished much in his life, but he valued family always. He made Frank and Pearlle proud, and his siblings admired his accomplishments..

He was blessed in return by the adoration of his loving wife, his children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews. He was an asset to his community everywhere he resided and could be relied upon to provide support and guidance when he saw an opportunity.

May GOD comfort the family with precious memories and Love from above.

“ Uncle Joe was always positive, an encourager from his heart , and filled with a spirit of love. I remember his trip to Jersey and New York to support students featured at the August Wilson theater. Uncle Joe, his sweet and lovely wife Linda, and David and Dorothy each enjoyed the orations and the remarkable gifts displayed by the students. Uncle Joe just loved hearing the students and he was such a supporter of each of them. He himself was gifted with so many talents! I will miss him terribly. He loved his family so much and frequently talked about them. We will all miss him so much, but we will carry with us beautiful memories and wonderful words of wisdom. May our Lord comfort Sweet Linda and their children , and the entire family. Love and prayers, one of his nieces, Dorothy Morgan Hollowell

“ Today, we pay tribute to the life and legacy of Joseph Louis Phillips, who throughout his life displayed the values and ideals of commitment to God and family, dedication to community service, and devotion to education that characterized his father Frank and his grandfather Jacob. As a soldier,” student, media communicator, teacher, brother, uncle, family connector, educator, historian, husband and father, he served as an example of the continuing quest for excellence and fulfillment of purpose. Even as we mourn his passing, we celebrate his innumerable accomplishments and his inspiring presence as a role model and encourager. To Linda and the rest of the family, we offer our deepest condolences and urge you to carry forth the torch of enlightenment, compassion and victorious spirit that lit up Joseph’s life. Peace and blessings to you all.
