“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family of Joseph Evert Richey, III. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. Comfort can be found in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ To the Family of Joseph Evert Richey, III, I wish to express my condolences as you endure the loss of your love one. The death of a loved one is one of the most devastating experiences a human can face. At times the loss may be unbearable. During this most difficult time, Draw close to God in prayer. Philippians 4:7 tells us that God will grant us the mental peace we need by means of Jesus Christ. May this peace be with you now, and the days ahead. “ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. I offer condolences and Scriptural encouragement to you all. Please keep in mind that God made a provision to restore dead ones to life when "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in raising up dead ones when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). Continue to "draw close to God and he will draw close to you." (James 4:8)

“ Dear Richey family,

I was looking at another obituary on this site and read about the loss of your dear son. The loss of anyone touches us to the core, but the loss of someone at such an tender age is truly a tragedy. Our hearts are with you in this difficult time. As we have also had a lost in our family recently, I wanted to share something that helped us cope. The Bible's promise of our dead loved ones living again happily on earth has given us real hope. A link to a tract that explains more from the Bible is below. You have our sincere condolences on your loss.
