“ The greatest tragedy grandparents can face is burying their grandchild. We are heartbroken knowing your family is going through such incredible pain. May God put his loving arms around your family throughout this time of unbearable grief.

Keeping your family in our prayers. May he rest in peace.

“ Joe & Loria
My heart hurts for you and your family
A long with family and friends to share, loving memories and joy that he brought to your life, you love and miss him, but yesterday is always there, keeping his memories in your heart alive forever, he's in a better place. He can now rest. Gone to soon

“ Dear Loria and Joseph- When a young man like Joseph cannot be protected from fatal accidents, we all suffer and it shines a light on the massive inadequacies of our society. Loria- your work at the YMCA is truly heroic. You and your team save lives of young and old. How dreadfully unfair that your family is now bearing this tragedy...My thoughts have been with you all day.

To: Joseph & Loria Yeadon and Family!

It is with great shock and sadness that I just read your email notice of the passing of your Grandson, Joseph T. Yeadon, Jr.!

As a Mother, myself, I cannot fathom such a loss, nor the pain of this tragic situation. Prayers to console each of you are being sent up to The God of us all. May the healing Love of God fill the hole in your hearts! May the Light of God move in and through you to minimize your grief...

May the knowledge that your Grandson is with The Creator and safe from all earthly harm, keep you peace-filled! All is well...because each of YOU are in the arms of The Creator too! Blessings to you and the family in days ahead.
