“ Words cannot express the abundance of sorrow that is being felt

I have cried for days after praying everyday for Jovita's healing and not seeing it come to fruition on this side of glory. However, I was gently reminded that whether we get the answer we want or the answer we don't want the grace of God is still the same and to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.

Jovita let her life shine. This is evident by the outpourings of heartfelt tributes of love and empathy expressed by people who knew her, worked with her, watched her in their homes daily, and those who loved her from a far. Jovita was my Twitter buddy. I will dearly miss our engagements, as I have for the last seven months. Biblically seven is the number of completion.

Be encouraged, Jovita Moore's light will never stop shining. Never stop praying for Jovita's family and dearest friends. Never stop loving because Jovita was love personified. 🙏🙏🙏

“ God saw you getting tired

When a cure was not to be

So he wrapped his arms around you and whispered

“Come unto me”

You did not deserve what you went through

So he gave you rest

God’s garden must be beautiful

He only takes the best

When he saw you sleeping

So peaceful and free from pain

He could not wish you to comeback

To suffer that all again

“ Thinking of you and your entire family these last few days. I moved to Atlanta in 2011 and because of you, WSB-TV became the local station I would view for Georgia news. I watched you over the years in all that you did. KUDOS on a JOB WELL DONE!!! You were certainly loved and adored. You put up such a brave fight but it's now time to rest.

My sincerest condolences to your Mother and children. Praying for their strength during this extremely difficult time. God bless and keep you all.

“ Sending Prayers and Condolences to the Moore Family. Jovita Moore will truly be missed. She was like a part of my family. I've watched her on the news every day since I've been in Atlanta. Rest In Peace 🌸

Eunice Hightower - November 04, 2021 at 05:01 PM

“ So very, very sorry. The world, and especially the State of Georgia, has lost a very special soul. I remember many years ago when I 1st saw Jovita as a new reporter on WSB, i told my husband right then she would be Monica's replacement one day. I remember seeing the clips of her in the maternity ward holding her new born babies. It would be impossible to replace that smile and sweet personality. I am truly heartbroken and praying for peace and comfort for all her family, relatives and WSB. I know she is smiling down from Heaven today.

“ Eternal rest granted unto the soul of Jovita and may the perpetual light shine upon her. I was so blessed to drive from Douglasville to say farewell to my friend and evening anchor. Jovita and I met at a luncheon for Minority Recruitment for the American Red Cross. At the end of the event we both walked to our vehicles together. What a great conversation we both had, about are connection to Xavier University of Louisiana. I always watched my friend daily and she gave us the best in broadcasting. May the Angels welcome her into the Holy City of Jerusalem. You all had a lovely Mother and her Mother had a lovely daughter. Rest in peace.

From an unknown poet.....When God sends forth a spotless soul to learn the ways of earth, A Mother's Love is waiting here. We call this wonder BIRTH. When God calls home a soul, and stills a fitful breath, LOVE DIVINE is waiting there, This too, is BIRTH , not death. The Apostle Peter spoke of this NEW BIRTH in (1 Pet. 1:3, NEB) Rest in peace Jovita, condolences to the Family.

“ I have known Jovita since she began her career in Atlanta in 1998. Although I was working at a different TV station we became friends through the Atlanta Association of Black Journalists and we worked on several projects together. The week before she was diagnosed with cancer, I reached out to her online to congratulate her on her 23rd anniversary at WSB-TV, telling her I'm proud of her as she continued to grow everyday in her career. She thanked me and that was the last time we chatted but I'm so glad we did.

My prayers are with her family, friends and colleagues who saw her everyday. She will be missed, but we were so blessed to have her. Rest in Paradise Queen!

“ Jovita Lynn, girl I miss you. You were a great friend. We bonded together working nights and weekends at WSB-TV. Our countless talks during dinner breaks on Saturdays was always about how we wanted to become moms. When it happened I co-hosted your shower for Shelby and you co-hosted my shower for my daughter Alaina. I've never forgotten that during my unemployment journey you turned my name and resume over to one of your contacts for consideration. Corona craziness kept us from our usual once a year very long brunch or lunch date. Remember we'd always leave the wait staff a great tip because we sat so long at one table just talking about our lives as an only child, parenting, and caregiving.

Ms. Yvonne, you raised a wonderful daughter who loved and cared about you and others. Lauren, you were her bonus child whom she loved very much and factored into every decision she made. Shelby and Joshua her face just lit up at the mention of your name and there was always a story to tell about what you two were into.

She's moved from earth to heaven now. Find strength in God's word and memories.

Love, Tracey Harris

“ Will miss her soothing smile. Even presenting devastating news, Jovita had a very calming personality. She was a true professional in every sense of the word. Her position will be a hard one to fill. She was "one of a kind". Her mother, husband and children have so much to be thankful for during this Holiday season. Jovita was a special "Gift from God". She is resting peacefully now in the arms of our Lord and Savior.

Jovita you are greatly missed. We pray so hard for your total recovery but God missed you and wanted you back home. I'm devastated and I love you Jovita! When we moved here from California in 2002 and we saw your newscasts and felt less lonely. Your beautiful radiance and smile transcended through the television. I never got to meet you in person and I wish I could have, God bless you Jovita you fought hard and God has you. You will never be forgotten. I will miss your beautiful smile. You made me want to watch the news every day. It will not be the same without you. My heart is broken. My prayers are with your family. Rest in peace.
