Obituary:

Joyce Marguerite Davis Hewitt was born on March 25, 1946 in Williamsfield, Jamaica to the late Alphonso Davis and Daisy Laing. As a child, she spent most of her growing years with her paternal grandparents Uriah and Adella Davis (Pappy & Mamie). She developed a nurturing disposition as she cared for younger family members who were also residing with Pappy and Mamie. Joyce was an attentive, faithful, hardworking, God-fearing woman. Her greatest reward in life was providing care for her incapacitated patients, family members in need, and anyone seeking a place of haven in her home. She was especially skilled in providing direct care as she obtained certificates in Nursing Assistance and Early Childhood Development. Joyce worked at Coney Island Hospital and various Nursing Homes in New York and Georgia providing high quality care in both institutions and private home care settings for over 20 years.

In addition, Joyce obtained a Culinary Arts certificate and was passionate about cooking.

Those who enjoyed her famous potato salad, escovitch fish, jerk chicken, many other entrees and specialty juices will sing her praises in the kitchen. Joyce married Carl Owen Hewitt and had 6 children from that union as well as 2 children prior. Joyce gave her life to the Lord as a young adult, was baptized at Holiness Church, SavLaMar, Jamaica and maintained active membership until she migrated to the United States in the 1980s. She continued in her faith in Christ at True Witness Apostolic Church, Lithonia, Georgia.

Joyce leaves to cherish her memory 3 daughters, Michelle Anderson (Devon), Candice Cunningham (Kobie) and Raquel Patterson (Harry); 4 sons, Andrae Hewitt, Jules Dean Hewitt, Dania Hewitt, and Carl Hewitt; 5 grandsons (Antoine, Shaquille, Caleb, Devon, Emmanuel) and 8 grand-daughters (Annika, Kiana, Omega, Serena, Amylyn, Cydavia, Ciera, Danielle); 4 great grandchildren; five sisters, Hyacinth Davis, Yvonne Vanna, Orlean Robinson, Sonia Brown, Dornet Daley, and 2 brothers, Clive Robinson and Delroy Davis, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. She was predeceased by her father Alphanso Davis, mother Daisy Laing, brother Andrew Robinson, son Ayon Stewart, and granddaughter Azariah Anderson. She encouraged and inspired many people to hold fast to the unchanging Hand of God while things work out according to God's covenant promises. She is greatly loved and will always be affectionately remembered as "shortie", "sweetie", and mama Joyce.

The Bible also gives us comfort and hope to see our loved ones again right here on earth by means of the resurrection. “There will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous “. May you have peace as you think about this beautiful hope for the future.
