“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that God works in mysterious ways or that God needed another angel, does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I offer sincere condolences and Scriptural encouragement to the family and friends of Ms. Taylor. May God's loving resurrection provision comfort and sustain you all as you look ahead to the time when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29). Please keep in mind that Jesus assures us: I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies will come to life. (John 11:25). Continue to draw close to God and he will draw close to you. (James 4:8)

“ I am sorry for your lose death is not a natural thing that's why we are so upset and sadden when we lose a loved one to death. The bible talks about a time when death will be no more in Revelation 21:4. I would be more than happy to more fully explain this hope to you and other bible truths you can reach me at Imperial630@gmail.com
