Joyce Lynette Street-Dennis was born on May 26, 1961 to Mrs. Ola Mae and the late Daniel Street Sr. She spent her early years in Columbus, GA attending elementary, middle school and graduated from Hardaway High School. She later married Specialist Johnny Dennis and traveled with him during his military career. Together they had two sons, Johnny Jr. (28) and Jeremy (23). Joyce was also a loving grandmother to Angelina (6), Kayla (4), Natalie (2), Jaine (8 mths) Jayda (1 1/2) and Cameron (8 mths).

Joyce lived her life to its fullest, she loved to travel and spend time driving across country enjoying listening to her favorite music with her family. She also loved having people to come to her home and enjoy the food she cooked. She worked as an administrative support person for several years with various companies within the Metro Atlanta. However, as her health began to fail in 2003 she endured many health obstacles, which lead to her demise. She was called home to be with the Lord on September 9, 2012.

Joyce was a person that loved to laugh, we spent hours sitting around the table laughing and talking about old times and life experiences. She was a very proud woman, some would consider her persistently determined, but she considered herself dazzling.

Joyce will be deeply missed by her siblings, Theresa L. Hall, Malinda Covington (Jim), Daniel Street Jr. (Marian), Lasharn Street-Gholston (Larry), Sandra Street-Clemmons (Gary) and Lenard D. Street (Tammy).

“ To the Family:
May "the God of all comfort" grant you peace and strength as you look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." ~John 5:28,29. Jesus confirmed his role in this promise when he said...."I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25. God is faithful and always keeps his promises! ~Isaiah 55:11, John 3:16, Revelation 21:3-5.
