June 12, 1939 - March 21, 2025

Juanita Patterson, a native of Opelika, Alabama, peacefully answered the call of her Lord and Savior on March 21, 2025. Born to the late Mary Lee Comer and Elbert Ligon on June 12, 1939, Juanita was a devoted mother, wife, friend and counselor.

She is survived by her loving husband of 67 years, Willie Patterson Sr. Juanita was affectionately known by many names, including "Big Mama," "Big Lady," "Y," and "JP," but to some, she was simply "Mom." Her legacy continues through her 22 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

Juanita was preceded in death by her three children, Kelly Patterson, Janice Brewer, and Annie Arnold. She was also a beloved sister to the late Frances, Paul, Ezekiel, Princella, Essie Mae, Easia and Velma.

“ Juanita Patterson aka "Big Moma" was definitely a loving soul that I will forever cherish and miss. Her presence in my life was special to me. She had a heart of GOLD and always remained the same. She left this earth swiftly but her time was up. God called her home and she didn't have to suffer anymore. I will always remember the times we had and making sure her hair would always be beautiful. Rest peacefully Mrs. Patterson ❤️❤️🙏🥹
