“ I was deeply saddened by the news of Ms. Johnson’s transition. I am praying that the family will find the peace that surpasses all understanding. Judith was a fighter, and she was encouraging to me in my time of need, and I truly am grateful for her, her spirit, and her truth. May God continue to shine His light and love on this family.

“ Judy and I pledged Delta Sigma Theta at Western Michigan University in 1975. I was saddened to hear of her passing and will always love and remember her as Dixie online. She was #3 and I was # 4 online. She was always cheerful looking for the best in everything. Heaven is blessed.
