“ As a long time friend of her mother, I met Judith twice and had the privilege to talk to her once due to her studies out of NY. I remember her as being full of life, beautiful, and with the brightest smile a human being can shine upon another. She had a genuine aura about her. She enquired about my kids and her charisma touched my heart. Though gone but not forgotten, her memory will live on and when Jesus returns, I know I will see her smile again. My condolences to her husband and her family.
