“ I am thankful for the witness and service of Judith Paisley. She shared freely with me as a fellow Presbyterian and as a member of another church.

“ Lighting a candle in memory of Judith is a pleasure as I recall her witness and service several years ago being a member of Committee of Women of Color and Presbyterian Women, Presbytery of Greater Atlanta. Her rice and peas was her signature dish she would graciously prepare for many events. Prayers are sent to the family during this difficult time. Sheila Louder
