“ I offer condolences to the family and friends of Ms. Pope. May "the God of all comfort" continue to comfort and sustain you all. As you look ahead, please keep in mind that "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9. God himself assures us: "Your dead ones will live.... They will rise up." ~Isaiah 26:19. Jesus confirmed his role in the resurrection provision when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25. "God's Word is truth." ~John 17:17

“ I met Judy in 1992 when I was a teller at Fifth Third Bank in Toledo, Ohio. We both were Toledo residents at that time. She was a regular customer at that particular branch of Fifth Third Bank. She and I would often strike up good conversations, especially conversations involving men. One day we both decided that it would be wiser to chat on the phone and not hold up my teller line. We exchanged phone numbers that day and our friendship was on. Judy had such an infectious, positive spirit and was such an encourager. She (and my next door neighbor at the time) convinced me that I (at the age of 30) could buy my own house. She eventually helped me to put my fears to bed and encouraged me to buy my first home in 1995. Judy was not only an encourager but amongst many other things, she was kind, considerate, thoughtful, concerned, caring and smart. I remember the time she opened the mail at her home while living in Toledo and learned that she had passed her RN test. She fell to the floor, all the while kicking and screaming for joy. I can only imagine her spirit's joy in the presence of the Lord. (And we are not afraid but are quite content to die, for then we will be at home with the Lord [II Cor. 5:8 - Living Bible]). I will truly miss you my friend.
Expressed with joy, sadness and love,
