“ I remember Duckie's home smelling of soul food and lots of fun. She was supportive of me. As a young adult she sent me shower curtains and other things for my apartment while I was in college at UGA. When I became a mom she came and kept my infant daughter a few times for me to attend appointments. She enjoyed life. So glad I got to see her through the glass window of Manor Care. She got excited as I delivered home cooked meals, a music player and cd's for her. I will always remember that distinctive voice and how she enjoyed life usually right there at home on Tilson. She made herself content with TV, Music and her own cooking!
