“ Julia, aka Pinkie, was my first cousin and my sister in Christ. She was beloved by those who knew her. Her bubbly personality, her infectious laugh and her combination Carolina-Virginia accent made her unforgettable. We shared many memories and secrets that only cousins can share. I will love and cherish her memory always. My deepest condolences to her beloved daughter, Janelle, whom she loved more than her own life. Your mother was a phenomenal woman and she has left you a legacy that cannot be denied. You were her very heartbeat. I want you to know that Cousin Brenda loves you now and always.
