

Julia Mae Smith

November 22, 1931 - January 1, 2018

Julia Mae Smith was born November 22, 1931 in Jacksonboro, South Carolina to Mamie and Sam Green. As Julia got older she would leave her life in Jacksonboro and move to Atlanta, Georgia to begin her family. In 1971 she would go on to marry the love of her life Frank James Smith, they were married for 33 years until his passing in 2004.

While married they nestled into a home in Kirkwood, which would become a safe haven for her kids, grandkids and great-grandkids to come. Julia was a judgement free woman who's kind words & free spirit helped those in need. She is described by most as caring, family oriented and always willing to give her last to whoever needed it.

Julia Smith was called home January 1st, 2018. She leaves behind five beautiful children, Brenda Bowden, Barron Dowden, Sherry P. Woods, Raymond Bowden (Gloria Bowden) & Lynne Bowden. Her loving grandchildren; and her beloved great grandchildren whom she holds dearest to her heart. Her three remaining sisters, Elizabeth Walden (John); Eartha Pickney (Samuel) & Hazel Wilson (Marion) & brother, Willie Green (Geraldine) and a host of nieces, nephews , family and friends.

“ Dear Smith Family: Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. May the love and support of family and friends comfort you greatly during this difficult time. The Bible also gives us comfort and hope to see our loved ones again right here on earth by means of the resurrection. “There will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous “ May you have peace as you think about this beautiful hope for the future.

“ Please accept our deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. Words cannot describe the pain and heartache you are experiencing but please be assured that our heavenly father knows your sorrow. For the bible promises that God cares for you and is "close to the brokenhearted" (1 Pet 5:7 & Psm 34:18). It is our hope that these thoughts will provide you some comfort in the days ahead.
