

Juneau Cassandra Booth

January 23, 1966 - September 22, 2025

Juneau Cassandra Booth, affectionately known as "Moochie", was born January 23, 1966, to Julian Clark, Jr. and Virginia Rivers Burr at Stephens County Hospital in Toccoa, Ga. On September 22, 2025, the Lord called his angel home.

Cassandra was a unique blend of feistiness and calmness. She was determined yet patient, direct yet empathic. She had an unwavering faith in God and was an active member of New Life Church of Decatur in Decatur, Ga. Her unwavering faith in God was evident in her active participation at New Life. She participated in numerous church activities, including serving as hospitality ministry leader, assistant director of ministries and participating in several other volunteer ministries.

Cassandra's love for her family was unconditional. She and her husband Gregory had no children of their own, but she cherished her stepchildren, step-grandchildren, nieces, and nephews. She enjoyed spending time with friends, and she especially loved hanging out with Gregory. She had a flair for style, and she enjoyed good food. She loved dressing up and was very particular about her appearance.

She graduated from Franklin County High School, Carnesville, Ga. in 1984 and earned her bachelor's degree in public relations in 1988 from Brenau

University in Gainesville, Ga. Cassandra was an accomplished professional in her field and held the position of manager for the Southeast region of NeighborWorks America. NeighborWorks is a national non-profit organization that creates opportunities for people to live in affordable housing. She loved her job because it gave her the opportunity to give back to so many deserving people.

Cassandra was preceded in death by her father Julian Clark, Jr., and her brother Anthony Jones.

She leaves to cherish her memory a devoted husband Gregory Booth of Tyrone Ga; mother, Virginia Burr (Phenizie) of Powder Springs, Ga.; sister, Shawnta Beasley (Jeff) of Maysville, Ga.; Grandmother, Blanche Rivers of Powder Springs, Ga.; Stepchildren, Nakia Felder (Mario) of Charlotte, NC,; Gregory T. Booth of San Antonio Texas; brother in law and sister in law, Arthur L. Booth, Jr. and Chicquita Booth, Minneola FL,; sister in laws, Letitia Myles (Abraham-), Fayetteville, NC; Lisa Joseph (Andrew) Phenix City, AL; aunt, Barbara Clark of Atlanta, Ga.; uncles, Tracy Rivers (Connie) of Kennesaw, Ga., James M. Rivers, Jr. (Anita) of Lavonia, Ga., three step-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

Services entrusted to Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Home, 4347 Flat Shoals Parkway, Decatur, Georgia 30034.

“ I feel so blessed to have had Cassandra as a sister-in-love. She was more than that. She was my sister. From the first time we met, Cassandra always wanted to make Lee and I feel welcome and at home at her and Greg's house and when they visited our home it was a mini family reunion. She was not only my sister but my friend. I am so very thankful that God allowed me the grace to know her and to love her. Rest in heaven Sis, until we meet again.

“ The Rileys (Ralph, Marilyn, Shannett, and Tennisha) met Cassandra some 15 years ago and fall in love with her quite spirit; her graceful demeanor; and her genuine love for our family. Some much so that Cassandra accepted an invitation to travel and spend a whole day event with Marilyn and the girls that left joy and peace in our hearts that cannot be explained. Cassandra had become one of our family members and there would much love to share. After many outing with Greg and Cassandra our family grew stronger, and God had just begun to bond our families together for future endeavors. Cassandra was introduced to our granddaughter Michaela, which she loved from the start. Cassandra loved Michaela as if Michaela was her own child. Both Cassandra and Michaela would get excited at the mentioning of their names. Great memories include sharing a bed and breakfast with Greg and Cassandra, Bill and Faye, Lindsey and Andrea in Savannah, Ga. and North Atlanta, Ga. Cassandra’s consistent life, patience, and steadfast heart cannot be measured and is viewed as fruit of the Spirit of God that reside in her. Cassandra’s life script will reveal God’s purpose in completion. We thank God for the space, time and season HE allowed Cassandra to be in our midst to influence our lives and touch our souls. Cassandra, well done, we love you and will miss you, until we meet again.

“ My heart was heavy hearing of Cassandra’s passing, but there’s joy in knowing that I’ll see her again in heaven. She was such a beautiful & loving person, & I enjoyed serving with her on New Life’s hospitality ministry. In 2007 when I was procrastinating in my home buying process, she encouraged me to trust God & step out on faith, & I thank God for His confirmation through Cassandra. She will truly be missed. Condolences to the Booth family, you are in my thoughts & prayers.

“ Sister Cassandra always loved serving People with such Joy and with a beautiful smile always . She and I volunteered together with the children of Parents of Seekers Service when it first begin in 2004. She brought so much Love, excitement, and laughter from the children as they learn about Our Savior and LORD Jesus. Now she is in the Presence of Jesus(II Corinthians 5:8). “ Dear Family,

It is with much sadness that we, your Clark-Rice Family cousins extend our most heart-felt, sincere condolences to you as we, like you, mourn the passing of Cassandra. As you walk through this season of darkness, we pray that God will shine forth, lighting a pathway for you into God's presence.

Tears will be shed, and hearts will be broken, but He is ALWAYS there to help put those pieces back together. The Poet, Helen Keller once said, "Walking with a FRIEND in the DARK is better than WALKING ALONE in the LIGHT." And we couldn't agree more! We pray for your peace and comfort, and for the Lord's continued blessings on each and every one of you! "

Weeping may endure for a NIGHT but JOY cometh in the Morning!
